

NATIONAL LIBRARY AND BOOK PATRIMONY

Director: Mrs Elisabetta Righi Iwanejko

Address:

Contrada Omerelli, 13
Palazzo Valloni
47031 Rep. San Marino

Phone Number: 0549/882248

Fax Number: 0549/882295

e-mail: biblioteca@omniway.sm

Opened to the public:

Mondays-Fridays: from 8.15 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. (non stop)

Saturdays: from 8.30 a.m. to 12.30 a.m.

Library's Patrimony:

The library owns not only volumes (107,301) Italian and foreign magazines and periodicals (92,288), but also manuscripts (1,150) including important collections of letters and missives. These manuscripts are collected and preserved in special sections, namely the historical, documentary, literary, and ecclesiastic sections. The autographs preserved in the Lybrary are also worth considering, as is the section containing precious and rare Incunabola (20) and Cinquecentine (820), that is books dating back to the XVth and XVIth century respectively.

Areas of Research:

- Sammarinese Bibliography Section
- Documentation Centre
- Newspaper Library
- Ancient Documents Section
- Protographic Archives on Local History
- Video Library
- Section "Pietro Franciosi"
- Consultation rooms with open bookcases

Services rendered:

- Book lending under the rules obtaining
- Bibliographical consulting on spot
- Organisation of cultural events regarding the Sammarinese identity
- Research and studies on behalf of Institutions and Agencies
- Conservation and restoration of documents and papers at the Library's Restoration Laboratory. This service is also rendered to private individuals, upon their request.
- Organisation of conferences, lectures, seminars, exhibitions of the National Library's material in co-operation with local and/or foreign institutions.